Amer Ash Brillo

A close-up photograph of a wood surface with a vertical grain pattern. The wood has a warm, medium-brown tone with subtle variations in color and texture. The grain lines are straight and run vertically across the entire frame. There are some faint, darker spots and variations in the wood's appearance, characteristic of natural wood.

Coihue Oscuro

Coihue

The image features a dark, rich brown wood grain texture that fills the entire frame. The grain is oriented vertically, with subtle variations in tone and texture that give it a natural, organic appearance. The lighting is slightly uneven, with some areas appearing darker than others, which emphasizes the grain's depth.

Crema Harbour

Cremini

Dynamic Roble Claro

The image displays a vertical wood grain texture. The grain consists of alternating dark brown and black vertical stripes, creating a high-contrast, rhythmic pattern. The texture is smooth and consistent across the entire frame.

Pure Natural

A close-up photograph of a wooden surface, likely a piece of Ridge Hickory. The wood grain is prominent, showing a mix of light tan and golden-brown tones. The grain runs vertically, with some wavy patterns and subtle variations in color. The texture appears smooth but natural, with some minor imperfections and variations in the wood's structure.

Roble Crudo

A close-up photograph of aged oak wood. The wood grain is prominent, showing vertical lines and a rich, warm brown color with some darker, weathered areas. The texture is smooth but shows signs of age and use.

Roble Envejecido

Roble Fortress Rochesta

Roble Fresco Lodge

Roble Hacienda

The image shows a close-up, vertical view of a wood surface with a prominent grain pattern. The wood has a warm, light brown to tan color. The grain consists of numerous fine, vertical lines that run parallel to each other, creating a textured appearance. There are also some larger, darker, wavy patterns that suggest the presence of knots or natural wood imperfections. The lighting is even, highlighting the natural texture and color variations of the wood.
